

Open Space: Migration and Development Partnerships through 2020 and Beyond

January 25, 2021, 12:30-15:30 CET

The GFMD ‘Open Space: Migration and Development Partnerships through 2020 and Beyond’ will take place on January 25, 2021 between 12:30 and 15:30 CET. The event will be entirely online via Zoom and the link to access to the session will be provided to all registrants. The purpose of this session is to celebrate partnerships that have emerged through the GFMD process through the Migration Labs as well as other separate streams. The first part of the Open Space will feature these partnerships through brief presentations and conversations with moderator Michael Clemens (Director of Migration, Displacement, and Humanitarian Policy and Senior Fellow, Center for Global Development). In the second half, the Head of the UAE GFMD Taskforce Alex Zalami will moderate a panel discussion with representatives of government development and implementing agencies about the GFMD partnership process.
